

This spacious, newly renovated first-floor flat featuring two well-proportioned double bedrooms. There is a large reception room, which opens onto a full-width private balcony with valuable storage, overlooking a beautifully maintained communal garden. Located within the Abbeyfields Close development, residents benefit from allocated off-street parking and dedicated bike storage, adding convenience to this well maintained development.

The property benefits also from being sold with No onward chain.

Conveniently situated just off Twyford Abbey Road, this property offers excellent connectivity for commuters. It is within easy reach of Hanger Lane (Central Line) and Park Royal (Piccadilly Line) underground stations, providing swift access to central London and beyond. For those traveling by car, the nearby A40 and North Circular Road offer quick and efficient routes across the city, making this an ideal location.
